FUN FOR GROCERS

The Retailers Forsake Business for a Day of Joy in Ross Grove.

THE MULE RACE FURNISHES FUN.

Other Sports and Games Help to Make the

Day One of Gayety. A ROW THAT MAY RESULT SERIOUSLY

A rumble of wheels, a sudden jerk, a rush of feet, a push through a small gate and swept on by a myriad of rollicking, jolly grocers, with their wives and daughters, describes the landing of a DISPATCH reporter nt Ross Grove on the West Penn Railroad seat in a flying circus at a country tair. The grocers of Pittsburg had turned out en masse, and all went in to enjoy their fourth annual jubilee pienic to the best advantage possible. Augmented by the trainloads from the city, and countless carriages arriving early in the afternoon they numbered fully 8,000, and possibly more. Such a time, such a rush, and such scenes of gayety let loose Ross Grove has rarely seen balls; only 5 cents," "Knock the babies down," "Try the wheel of fortune," "Strike the machine and try your muscle," "Test your lungs," "All the latest songs for 10 cents," were but a few cries of the fakirs that mingled with the multitudinous shouts, laughter and music from the two bands, busy guiding the young people's feet through the mary waltz. through the mary waltz.

A DAY OF GAYETY, when perplexing accounts, state ledgers, the ball of twine, the bag and paper were all cast aside for a day with nature in the woods, a breath of tresh air, and general good time. Many of the grocers closed their places of business early in the day, but few places were left open by 2

Until about 3:30 in the afternoon the grocers contented themselves with wandering over the grounds, sitting under the trees, eating sandwiches, drinking lemonnde, pop, etc., swapping stories and making new acquaintances. At about the time named, two nines composed of grocery clerks and commission house clerks com-menced to knock a ball around a stone cornered diamond, and the crowd commenced to yell "Go'er Jim, you're not slugging sugar lar pet expressions of encouragement.
The second inning was hardly over before there was a cry of "The mule race. The mule race," and in two seconds' time the players were left alone on the field, and the crowd rashed to the appearance. "Land it in the river," and simicrowd rushed to the upper part of the grounds to see the race.

THE MULE BACE.

Drawn in line across the creek were six mules, with their riders, coatless and sticks in their hands. Joseph Wesling rode Jonnie, a steed with mulish large ears. R. L. McGarvey was astride a gray mule with the high sounding name of Gray Eagle. Jiblets was the name Walter Kinley gave his steed. E. S. Kiskaddon rode Thunder. William Johnson was busy before the start soothing the nerves of an ugly beast. When the word was given the crowd scattered, and a confusion of heels, ears and riders, strivroar with laughter. The mules made for the creek; one ran into a tree; another jumped over a small boy and Jurned sround and looked at him to see what he had done. All finally fell in line and circled round a bush some

The race was for two heats out of three The race was for two neats out of three.

The next heat the mules raced around the lots for some time amid the cheers of the crowd and started on the homestretch. Johnson's came in first and Gray Eagle second. In the third heat Jennie came in first, Johnson's second and Gray Eagle third. In the fourth heat Johnson's came in first, Gray Eagle second and Jiblets third. Johnson's mule took first money, $15, and Gray Eagle second money,

RUSHING TO SEE A FIGHT.

Following the sack race, several foot races were run outside of the scheduled sports. And just as one of these was in progress there was a cry and the crowd was seen rushing up over the hill. Sure enough

Jimmy Shields, a young man employed as groom at the Hotel Boyer stables, so the story goes, took a loaf of bread from a wagon, when four or five men attacked him and pounded him over the head with empty beer bottles. He was not cut any-where, but his head was frightfully pounded up. As the reporter left he was ying under a tree unconscious, foaming at the mouth and his whole frame quivering. Some said he would die, others of the onookers leaned over him, and said he would recover, but at last reports he was still inensible. No arrests were made.

THE SACK RACE.

The sack race caused a good deal of sport. Six boys entered the contest. Thomas Hock carried off $3, as the first prize, and B.Sands given a fair chance, as the tree boys were hardly given a fair chance, as the crowd closed in on them and did not give them room to show any great amount of dexterity at jumping in a sack. At best it was but a yeli, a rush, three sacks lying flat and a rush for the prize money.

The next feature was the balloon ascensions. Fishes, dragons, pigs, and other curious-shaped balloons were filled with gas and launched into the air, but the majority of them toppled over on their sides and burnt up. However, the committee had enough on hand to satisfy the crowd, and they soon began to take the different trains for the city.

A week hence from yesterday the Aliegheny grocers will hold their pionic at the same grove, and also anticipate a jolly

A SENSIBLE REQUEST.

Patrons of the P. & L. E. Ry. Want to be Kept Posted When Trains Are Late. People along the line of the Pittsburg and Lake Eric Railway are swallowing the ground with ficreeness and rage because the company does not display bulletin boards to let them know when trains are late. They say when the washout on Sunday night delayed trains at Bridgewater, crowds were kept waiting, some four and others six hours, being unable to get information from agents as to the probable length of delay. One man says his time would have been worth $5 to him could be have spent it at home half a mile distant, but owing to what he styles the "pigheadedness" of a station agent, he could not get any idea of the length of time he was likely to be so delayed, and so hung around the station four home.

State With 15,000.000 Agres of Uncaltivated Lands in Need of People-Judge Grattan Talks Politics in Pittsburg. Judge Charles Grattan, Commissioner of Immigration of Virginia, is at the Monon-rabela House. In an interview, the Judge said: "There are 15,000,000 acres of uncultivated lands in Virginia that we would like to have settled with good white people. I am trying to induce people to emigrate into our State. We have a number of plantations containing from 1 to 500 acres of land that will be sold at from $3 to $10 of land that will be sold at from $3 to $10 per acre. In a few years the land will produce as much grass and corn as the soil of Pennsylvania. It is not so good for raising wheat. These farms at one time were owned by wealthy people and the negroes did the work, but the war ruined them financially, and they have been forced to abandon the lands. The State is large enough to support double its present population."

The Judge was on his way to see some vesterday afternoon. Going down the little people in Jefferson county who had coal lands to sell, and were thinking of going to Virginia to live. He had the names of 43 hill into the crowd was like trying to get a

On the subject of State politics he continued: "If Mahone is nominated for Gover-nor by the Republicans he will be defeated, His conduct when in public life was such that his defeat would be easy. The Demo-crats would be glad to see the little General put up. The Democratic nomination lies between P. F. McKenna and Editor Buroe, of the State. If the Republicans nominated a representative of the Wise faction, and Mahone would support him, we would have a hard time knocking out the candidate."

THE FLINTS' CONVENTION. Glassblowers Adjourn, After Re-Electing

Their Old Officers. The convention of the American Flint Glass Workers' Association at Bellaire adtary was voted down, and by a large majority they were given an increase of $100 each, making their salaries $1,400 and $1,300 respectively. The convention indorsed the Glass Budget as the official organ of the

The pressed ware list was not reduced, and those in a position to know assert that no changes have been made in any branch that will cause a question with the manufacturers, unless it is in the prescription branch. The conference with manufacturers on this has been fixed for Friday in Pittsburg. The officers elected are:

President and Treasurer, Wm. J. Smith, of Pittsburg: Vice President, John T. Hinckley, of Philadelphia; Secretary, W. J. AN ENGINE FOR THE PARK.

An Automatic One to be Made to Pump the Well Water. The fact that the water can only be pumped out of the wells drilled in the Allegheny park is somewhat annoying, especially when children who are not strong enough to work the pumps are sent for water. In order to overcome this trouble the citizens who are having the well drilled near the foot of Boyle street have arranged to have ment of a heavy assessment by her to im-

When the subject was first suggested to Superintendent Armstrong, he objected for the reason that he thought it would consume too much water to operate the motor, but a type of engine was suggested by him which will consume exactly as much water from way up the creek, which was the turning point. The crowd scattered as they came back. Jiblets came in first and Johnson's and will consume exactly as much water from the city's supply as it pumps from the well, back.

The Wilson-Snyder Manufacturing Company, which recently erected the new and successful engines at the Allegheny water works, have agreed to devise and construct the little engine on the plan suggested. They promise to make it work successfully and at the same time to be an ornament to the park. The engine will require about a month in its construction.

PARKS IN PROSPECT

The Committee Meets and Decides to Consult Mrs. Schenley

FOR TERMS ON THE MT.AIRY TRACT Mr. Carnahan Says Mrs. Schenley is Liberal and Will Sell;

The Committee on Parks met in the City Clerk's office yesterday afternoon. Prior to the meeting several members of the committee and Chief Bigelow had a short informal talk about what property in the neighbor hood of the present Hiland Park and the proposed Twenty-second ward park could be conveniently purchased and added to them.

When the committee was called to order Mr. Bigelow told Messrs. Carnaban and Ford, members of the committee who had failed to accompany the party on Tuesday, about the trip they had taken and the impressions they had gained of the Schenley property and that surrounding the Hi-land Park. He said that the committee was pleased with the Schenley property and that, with the addition of the Murdoch tarm, which adjoined it, thought it would make one of the finest parks in the country. As to the Hiland Park it could also be made a beautiful and extensive place by adding to it the Lockhart, Negley and a few other surrounding properties which Mr. Bigelow thought could bought for from $250 to $500 per acre. He had an option on the Lockhart property as well as several others in that vicinity; and thought the city could safely purchase

Mr. Magee advised that the whole Negley run valley, from Hiland avenue to the A. V. R. R., including the Hoevetler and several other properties, be included in the park if it could be purchased at reasonable figures, but said it was probable that when the parties owning these properties found that the city was desirous of buying, they would run up the price on them to such an extent that their purchase would be out of the suestion. He moved, however, that Chief Bigelow be instructed to nego tiate with the owners of property in the vicinity of Hiland Park, and

Mr. Bigelow suggested that Mr. Carna han be requested to go to England at the expense of the city to see Mrs. Schenley about the sale to the city of her property in the Twenty-second ward.

Mr. Carnahan thought this was unnecessary. He believed Mrs. Schenley would sell if the facts were laid before her and a reasonable offer made. He denied the reports that the lady would not sell any of her property, and said that during the past six years she had sold over $300,000 worth of her Pittsburg property.

Mr. Keating asked Mr. Carnaban if he thought Mrs. Schenley would renew her offer, made some years ago, of 150 acres to the city for park purposes and if she would sell the balance to the city.

Mr. Carnaban replied that he did not know what she would do now. When the offer was made she thought the city would make improvements that would enhance the value of her property. The Junction road has some of the land, and there is left he Sound Reasons for Approval.

There are several cogent reasons why the medical profession recommend and the public prefer Hostetter's Stomach Bitters above the ordinary catharties. It does not drench and weaken the bowels, but assists rather than forces nature to act; it is botanic and safe; its action is never preceded by an internal earthquake like that produced by a drastic purgative. For 35 years past it has been a household remedy for liver, stomach and kidney troubles, malaria and rheumatism.
